Senior IPS officer Rajiv Singh new Manipur DGP

Imphal: Senior Indian Police Service officer Rajiv Singh was on Thursday appointed as the new DGP of Manipur.

Singh replaces P Doungel, who will be Officer on Special Duty (Home), a new post created by the Manipur government. Personnel and Administrative Reforms Department Special Secretary N Geoffrey said in an order that Rajiv Singh will be the new DGP of Manipur and Head of the Police Force immediately upon joining the state government.

Singh, an IPS officer of the 1993 batch, was serving as the Inspector General of the CRPF. Soon after the violence broke out in the state on May 3, the central government appointed former chief of the CRPF Kuldeep Singh as a security adviser to the Manipur government.
